Take the Mystery Out of Estate Planning
Charitable Planned Giving Can Provide Benefits to You, Your Heirs, and a Cause You Believe In Roseville, CA – Does leaving a legacy for a worthy charity mean shortchanging our families? Not at all. Do you need to be wealthy to have an Estate Plan? Absolutely not. At the Placer SPCA's Estate Planning Workshop on Friday, April 23 at 12:00 pm, attendees will learn how Estate Planning can help them meet personal, family, and charitable giving goals, in any income bracket. Charitable giving through an estate plan is a way to leave a lasting legacy to a worthy cause while providing tax benefits for your estate.

Attendees will learn about many different kinds of charitable planned giving, presented by Certified Financial Planner Colin S. Grahl. This workshop is for educational purposes only. No one will be solicited to purchase services.

Advance sign-up is requested for this free event that includes a light lunch. Those interested are asked to contact the Placer SPCA Development Department by Wednesday, April 21 at (916) 782-7722, extension 102 or (530) 885-7387, extension 102 or funddevelopment@placerspca.org.

Local companion animal welfare experts, the Placer SPCA offers many services for the pets and people of Placer County thanks largely to the generosity of individual charitable donations. Learn more at www.placerspca.org.
