Family Fun at Pet Fest, May 2, 2009

Roseville, CA – Pet Fest is coming to the Placer SPCA. On Saturday, May 2 from 10:00 to 2:00, the Placer SPCA will host a pet-friendly fair at its companion animal center at 150 Corporation Yard Road in Roseville.

This family-friendly event is free to attend, and well-behaved dogs on leash are welcome. Activities include dog games such as paw painting, musical sit, a costume contest, and more. There will also be a vendor fair and tours of the adoption contest. Guests are invited to bring photos of pets to participate in the “So Ugly They’re Cute” and “Cutest Pet” contest. The event is sponsored by The Eagle 96.9, Sacramento’s Classic Rock, which will broadcast live from the Placer SPCA.

New this year will be a Swab-a-Thon by Canine Heritage Breed Test. Tests will be available to purchase to find out the genetic heritage of dogs, accurate for over 100 breeds. Tests will sell for $99.95, and a portion of the proceeds will benefit the Placer SPCA. This is a perfect opportunity for owners of “mutts” to find out just what breeds are in their best friend’s family tree.

For this day only, the Placer SPCA will offer free adoptions to good homes for all adult cats. There will also be special adoption fees for dogs. All adoptions are subject to counseling and screening. All animals adopted from the Placer SPCA have received a veterinary exam, behavior assessment, spay or neuter surgery, rabies vaccine, and a microchip.

For more information, please visit the Placer SPCA website at www.placerspca.org/petfest or call (916) 782-7722 or (530) 885-7387. As Placer County’s local animal welfare experts, the Placer SPCA works toward the day when every adoptable companion animal has a home.
