Family Fun at Pet Fest, May 22, 2010

Roseville, CA – Pet Fest is coming to the Placer SPCA. On Saturday, May 22 from 10:00 to 2:00, the Placer SPCA will host a pet-friendly fair at the companion animal center at 150 Corporation Yard Road in Roseville.

This family-friendly event is free to attend, and well-behaved dogs on leash are welcome. Activities include dog games such as paw painting, musical sit, a costume contest, and more. There will also be a vendor fair and tours of the adoption center. Guests are invited to bring photos of pets to participate in the “So Ugly They’re Cute” and “Cutest Pet” contest. The event is sponsored by The Eagle 96.9, Sacramento’s Classic Rock, which will broadcast live from the Placer SPCA.

Also at Pet Fest, join the Swab-a-Thon by Canine Heritage Breed Test. Tests will be available to purchase to find out the genetic heritage of dogs, accurate for over 100 breeds. This is a perfect opportunity for owners of “mutts” to find out just what breeds are in their best friend’s family tree. A portion of the proceeds will benefit Placer SPCA.

For this day only, the Placer SPCA will waive all adoption fees for adult cats. All adoptions are subject to counseling and screening. All animals adopted from the Placer SPCA have received a behavior assessment, spay or neuter surgery, rabies vaccine, and a microchip, and adopters receive a voucher for a free veterinary exam.

For more information, please visit the Placer SPCA website at www.placerspca.org/petfest or call (916) 782-7722 or (530) 885-7387. As Placer County’s local animal welfare experts, the Placer SPCA works toward the day when every adoptable companion animal has a home.
