Placer SPCA Calls for Volunteers

Roseville, CA – Are you looking for an opportunity to volunteer to help animals, but have never found the right fit? Placer SPCA’s new Thrift Store may be just the place for you.

The Placer SPCA is urgently seeking hundreds of new volunteers to staff the Placer SPCA Thrift Store scheduled to open in August.

“We need people now,” said Placer SPCA CEO Leilani Vierra. “Donations are going to begin pouring in soon, and we’ll need lots of hands to sort and price everything.”

Those who are interested are encouraged to call (916) 782-7722, extension 104 or (530) 885-7387, extension 104, or send an email to volunteer@placerspca.org. Several Volunteer Orientation classes are scheduled this month, and volunteers will begin getting the store ready for its grand opening.

“We find that some people love to volunteer directly with the animals,” said Vierra, “while others want to do what they can to help outside of the shelter environment.”

The Placer SPCA Thrift Store will be located in the Roseville Business Park at 931 Washington Blvd., Suite 107, Roseville, at the intersection of Washington Blvd. and Junction Blvd. For more details about the Thrift Store or for information about donating items for sale, please visit www.placerspca.org/thrift.

The Thrift Store will raise funds to support Placer SPCA, located nearby at 150 Corporation Yard Road in Roseville, near the Placer County Fairgrounds. Placer SPCA, local companion animal welfare experts, offers programs for the pets and people of Placer County, including adoptions, lost and found, low-cost spay and neuter assistance, humane education, and free animal behavior assistance.
